JONATHAN'S FIREWORKS

www.tradefireworks.net

Brand New Trade website for 2026

Welcome

A WARM WELCOME TO OUR 2026 RETAIL FIREWORKS BROCHURE

Our customers have generally reported a buoyant 2025 for firework sales and with Bonfire Night falling mid-week there were two weekends of sale. In a significant number of instances, New Year's Eve outperformed Bonfire Night as the trend for people celebrating at home rather than going out continued. Sales of fireworks for Diwali also increased, not only in retailers who have traditionally done well but also in quite a few who have seen very few sales over this celebratory period, which this year falls on 8th November.

We have already made a number of visits to our factories in China to place our 2026 orders for both Retail and Professional Fireworks. These visits also provided an opportunity to develop new products and to arrange timely shipping to the UK to ensure all orders are fulfilled well before the season begins. We have an excellent relationship with our factories, which are some of the finest in China and our long-term agent who ensures they maintain both quality and supply.

New products are an integral part of the continuing growth of the company and this year we will be introducing twelve brand new products together with the return of some old favourites that had previously been unavailable. The new products include four Compound Cakes, a fantastic long-lasting Fountain, a Barrage Pack containing ten larger Multi-Shot Cakes, for the first time powerful Ball-Headed Rockets and two new Multi-Shot Cakes. Some of these products will be the more powerful 1.3G but in 1.4G packing to ensure storage weights are not compromised. Additionally, The Barrage Bag and LOW NOISE Festival of Light are back by popular demand.

The welfare of our customers is of the highest importance and much of our continuing growth can be attributed to our passion for producing only the highest quality Retail and Professional fireworks backed by a first class after sales service.

Can I take this opportunity to sincerely thank our existing customers for their continued loyalty and to offer a warm welcome to any new customers who are considering joining us in the future.
